BOYCOTTERS STRATEGIC.

Would-Be Purchasers, of the Dealers-Heavy Punishment for Rioters.

Fifty or more kosher butcher shops on the lower east side opened for business this morning after having been closed for one week as a result of the women's anti-Beef Trust riots.

The reopening was productive of only one case of violence and that resulted in a prompt arrest. No one was ser iously hurt in that instance.

The stores were opened by their proprietors under a promise of police protection and a promise of the infliction of severe penalties on any rioters who might destroy property or injure persons. But opening the shops was not enough to sell meat. The kosher butchers did practically no business.

The reason lay in a change of tactics by the Ladies' Anti-Beef Trust Association and its allies. A boycott had re-placed rioting and a new scheme had been devised to injure the 2butchers without becoming liable to the law. Women went from shop to shop in companies of fifteen or twenty and at each butcher's asked for meat of various grades as if about to purchase. 50,000 Families Without Ment.

"The spontaneity of this movement for cheaper meat is the best proof that the grievances of the poorer classes on the east side against the Jewish Kosher Beef Trust are very real and serious. Prices have been raised 6 and 7 cents a pound. It is conservatively estimated that 50,000 Jewish families have been ab-staining from the use of meat for over two weeks. The people feel very justly that they are being ground down, not only by the Beef Trust of the country. but also by the Jewish Beef Trust of but also by the Jewith Beef Trust of the city.

"The conference wishes to state most emphatically that the leaders of the movement do not countenance any vio-lence, but it desires to state also that the sensational reports of violence com-mitted on the east side are a libel upon the good name of a peaceful, honest and industrious section of the city.
"The people of the east side feel that the unwarranted summary action of the police in refusing to allow the people to assemble peaceably under police protec-tion is tantamount to an attack on the right of free speech."

He said tynchings were not confined to the South. Horrible cases had occurred in the North, and white men as well as black had been the victims.

During the past ten years 2.668 lynchings had taken place in the United States. Of these 121 had occurred in the South and 14 in the North, and the remainder in other parts of the country. If the strong arm of the law could reach out to prevent such occurrences he deemed it desirable that it should do so.

He had read the Associated Press ac-bount of the burning of a negro in fexas a few days ago. He said history id not furnish a more fiendish instance of mob wrath. The whole wretched business, he said, was a disgrace to a merican manhood and in the light of which the alleged atrocities in the Phil-senines paid into insignificance.
